MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to create an educating Christian community which reflects the values of the Gospel within the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church;

- a community which will develop the whole person
- a community which works closely with parents and parish
- a community which values each child as a unique individual with particular gifts and needs
- a forward looking community which serves its members and the wider society
- a community in which we will lead those in our care to grow in their faith whilst benefiting from an enriching education.

FOR TEACHING AND NON-TEACHING STAFF

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This Code of Conduct sets out standards of conduct which staff are expected to follow when within, or representing the School. This code is not exhaustive but is written to assist staff and it is important that staff should take advice and guidance if necessary. If in doubt, ask.

1.2 The underlying purpose is to ensure that the School provides a high quality service to its pupils and stakeholders in accordance with the Mission Statement and to promote public confidence in the integrity of the School.

1.3 It takes in the requirements of the law and attempts to define the required levels of professionalism to ensure the well-being of the School, its staff and its customers.

1.4 It has been written to comply with School Policies and Procedures.

1.5 Staff should read this Code carefully and consider the issues which it raises.

1.6 The Headteacher should also ensure that all staff are aware of the Code's contents and are fully briefed on its implications.

1.7 Investigations of alleged breaches of this Code will be covered under the School's Disciplinary procedures and related codes of practice.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT

2.1 EXCLUSIVITY OF SERVICE

1. Staff's off-duty hours are their personal concern, but they should avoid a position where duty and private interests conflict. This includes:

- Staff members making online associations/friendships with current pupils via social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
- Staff members using texting/email facilities on either their mobile phone or PC/Mac to communicate with current pupils.

The above amendments have been included to safeguard the safety of pupils and the safety and professional integrity of school staff.

2. The School does not seek to preclude staff unreasonably from undertaking additional employment but you are required to devote your full time, attention and abilities to your duties during your working hours and to act in the best interests of the School at all times.

3. Regardless of whether you are employed on a full-time or part time contract, you are required to notify the Headteacher of any employment or engagement which you intend to undertake whilst in the employment of the School. (including any such employment or engagement which commenced before your employment began with the School).

2.2 SPECIFIC ASPECTS

1. Discrimination: Staff must at all times observe the School's Equal Opportunities Policy for staff and pupils and treat pupils, parents and other stakeholders in accordance with those policies.

2. Health and Safety: Staff must take care of their personal hygiene, safety and welfare, and that of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions. All staff must comply with the requirements of the School Health and Safety policy and relevant legislation and regulations, and also ensure that pupils do likewise.

3. Fire: Staff must familiarise themselves with the fire precautions, procedures and drill routines. They must regard practice fire drills or building evacuations in a positive manner, and ensure they are perceived by pupils as an essential precaution to prevent risk of injury or fatality.

5. Business Practice: Staff must maintain an impeccable standard of integrity in all their professional relationships.

6. Media: Other than on matters of publicity, only the Headteacher is authorised to speak or send any communication on behalf of the School to members of the press or broadcast media. This decision is to avoid any embarrassment or unfair pressure on staff. This authorisation may be extended by the Headteacher to other staff members.

7. Copyright: Staff shall observe copyright laws on computer software, audio-visual and printed material.

8. Data Protection Act

It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure the School's compliance with the Data Protection Act. Personal data must only be used to assist you to carry out your work; it must not be given to people who have no right to see it. All staff should maintain the security of all computerised databases of information on individuals, whether they are staff, pupils or members of the general public. Staff should refer any queries to the Headteacher.

2.3 GENERAL POINTS

1. Staff should display the highest possible standards of professional behaviour that is required in an educational establishment (see also Appendix 1).
2. Staff should seek to co-operate with their colleagues, providing support, help and guidance as required by them and their line manager, and enable effective communication throughout the School.
3. Staff should not use their position in the School for private advantage or gain.
4. Staff should avoid words and deeds that might bring the School into disrepute or might undermine colleagues in the perception of others (staff/pupils/parents/community).
5. Staff should retain professional independent objectivity and not promote dogma or political bias to others in their working activities.
6. Staff should be aware of, and should follow School policies systems and procedures. They should normally communicate through the line management structure, and should ensure pupils do likewise.
7. Continuing professional development and support shall be provided by the School and, where appropriate and agreed, will be based on the objectives of the School Development Plan. Periodically, employees will be required to attend certain training activities to ensure that they can carry out their job effectively.
8. Staff should attend their place of work punctually in accordance with their conditions of service and at the times agreed with their line manager. Those unable to avoid being late or absent should, whenever possible, give as much notice to the Headteacher/Line Manager so that alternative cover arrangements may be made.

2.4 ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES

1. Teaching staff shall maintain and properly complete a register for all classes for each session.
2. In order to ensure safeguards both for staff and pupils, staff must obtain permission from the Headteacher:
 - before taking pupils off the School premises;
 - before arranging for any visiting speakers;
 - before incurring any expenditure on behalf of the School.

2.5 CONFIDENTIALITY

Staff shall maintain the appropriate levels of confidentiality with respect to student and staff records and other sensitive matters. They should take care not to discuss issues of particularly sensitive matters within the School community which could cause distress to School staff, pupils or parents or comment on school matters via any social networking sites or in areas where public or others can overhear..

2.6 WHEN IN DOUBT, ASK!

If any member of staff is in any doubt with regard to the guidelines of this Code, and how they apply in any particular situation, then please consult with the Headteacher. It is re-emphasised that this Code is intended to be a help and to enable fairness and equity between all staff.
